GARDENS OF MEMORY

*The gardens are faded and wilted
Their brown beds, moldy and bare
With moonlight to create the sadness
Of discovering roses once there.*

*And lingering, soft in the shadows
On pathways that wind round about
I pick my bouquet of an evening
With the trembling stars all out.*

*There is something to say of a garden
When its petals have fallen from view.
There is more in the birth of a blossom
Than its aroma and delicate hue*

*Surely others have gathered, as I have,
Bouquets from a withered past
A flower must fade after blooming . . .
But gardens of memory last.*

OFFICE STAFF

"BOSSES" THE L.C. FAMILY

Seated at the left is Helen Huneke, secretary, Mable Swanson, attendance clerk; and Principal A. L. Parker, who, figuratively speaking, is the head of the L.C. family

The Mathematics department, under the direction of Fred Kramlich, is happy to have two new members in its family, Clinton N. Carlson and Glen D. Daugherty. First row: Eugene G. Sivertson, Fred Kempf, William E. Donner, Blanche Smith. Second row: Clinton N. Carlson, Fred Kramlich, Glen D. Daugherty, H. P. Aldrich

MATHEMATICS AND ENGLISH DEPARTMENTS

The English department, which is the largest department in the school, is composed of teachers which have been affiliated with the school for a number of years. The newest teacher is Mrs. Kathryn Sullivan, who in addition to teaching English, plays the Lewis and Clark Organ. The teacher who has been associated with the English department for the longest period of time is Carl G. Miller, who has been here for 32 years. First row: Martha Graham, Grace G. Peck, Lois H. Knox, Francis J. Vecchio, Joyce W. King, Marian H. Pettis, Helen Back, Vivian Zent. Second row: Hazel Campbell, Ernest F. McElvinn, Kathryn Sullivan, Leopold M. Beard, Mary W. Watrous, George Palmer, Alys Howard, Carl G. Miller

LIBRARY, FOREIGN LANGUAGES, INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The thousands and thousands of books used by the L.C. family are under the direction of three women: Mrs. Bernice M. Bruton, head librarian, shown at the right, Mrs. Rachel Renn, assistant librarian, shown in the center, and Mrs. Norma McQuown, bookroom clerk, shown at the left

The middle group of teachers make up the staff of the Foreign Language department, headed by Marguerite Cross. New to the staff this year is Mrs. Helen Black, who teaches Spanish. First row: Marguerite Cross, Martha Graham. Second row: Grace Bartlett, Wesley Read, Lillian Charbonneau, Helen Black

The principal new thing about the Industrial Arts Department this year is the organization of the ~~complete~~ department on the basement floor. William Dunlop is the head of the staff. Absent from the picture is Robert Bartlett who teaches safe driving. Mr. Dunlop is in the center, at his left is Elmer Rich and at his right is Gilbert Brooks

ART. MUSIC. STUDY HALL

The art family, although limited in the number of teachers, is compensated for by having two very able and experienced instructors in the persons of Miriam Morgan left, and Lydia S. Goes, head

These two hard-working faculty members, Gerald Hartley and C. Oliver Fuller, shown in the middle, constitute the Music department. Mr. Hartley, left, directs all choral groups and Mr. Fuller, right, head of the department, directs the band and orchestra. Both present varied and well received concerts throughout the year.

Ruth Anderson and Edith Collins, the two study hall teachers whose hard work enables the students to study, are pictured at the bottom. Both have been with the Lewis and Clark family for a number of years. Mrs. Collins, the mother of three L.C. graduates, was a former English teacher.

News of the Science department pertains to a new laboratory and two new teachers, Charles Woolfridge and Clinton N. Charlson. The long wanted laboratory, room 314 was completed and well received. The department hopes that it will improve its standing. From left to right: Oscar Arger, Charles Woolfridge, B. C. Anderson, L. G. Minard, Clarence E. Miller, Clinton N. Charlson, Gerald Meckelson, H. M. Londerback.

SCIENCE AND SOCIAL STUDIES

Miss Katherine Hunt Jones was added to the department as the new head of social studies teachers. Working with her are eleven men teachers. Louis Livingston has returned to the staff after a two-year absence. First row: William B. Graham, Arthur Frey, E. W. Joys, Katherine Hunt, Robert L. Bartlett, Max F. Schoenick. Second row: Louis Livingston, Norman C. Perrang, John L. Wohrman, C. W. Mann, Anderson, Orlando Fletcher, John B. Peterson.

HOME ECONOMICS, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, COMMERCIAL

Girls aren't the only ones taking home economics anymore. You will now find classes of boys taking some of the courses. Boys may enroll in social relations, child development and a family class entitled "Chef," a name the boys gave it. Teachers in above picture are Averil E. Fouts, Ann Cunningham, Gracia White, department head, Ruby Philips.

These teacher-physical educational teachers are very closely knit together, helping each other at all times. While Mr. Jones assists Mr. Hunter in the boys' P.E. department, Mrs. Jones helps Miss Danke in the girls' P.E. department. Since Hal Jones and Charlotte Jones are husband and wife, there is also a faculty tie-in here. From left to right: Harold Jones, Virginia Danke, E. L. Hunter, Charlotte Jones.

The commercial faculty pictured at the bottom has been under the direction of Charles E. Baten for many years. Absent from the picture is L. A. Orcutt and Mrs. Carther Plowman. Mrs. York substituted for Mrs. Plowman and Mrs. Magnuson for Mr. Orcutt. First row: Delbert Marshall, Charles E. Baten, Alonzo Woolard. Second row: Miss Bernadette Proulx, Mrs. Mary York, Mrs. Evelyn Magnuson.

A black and white cartoon illustration of a tiger. The tiger is standing and facing forward, wearing a light-colored jersey with a dark circular patch on the chest and dark shorts. It is holding a large, curved banner across its midsection with both hands. The banner has the word "SPORTS" written on it in a bold, sans-serif font. The tiger has a wide, toothy grin and its eyes are wide open. There are several small, teardrop-shaped marks floating in the air around its head. The tiger is wearing striped socks and large, dark shoes. The background is plain white, and the entire illustration is enclosed within a decorative, hand-drawn border.

1954 TIGER NINE CAPTURES CHAMPIONSHIP

The Tiger baseballers captured their thirteenth city championship in the spring of '54, their first since 1951. Lightly regarded in pre-season predictions, the Tigers "hacked" into the championship when N.C. downed the Bengals in the season finale 4-2, but Rogers upset Gonzaga 6-2 to hand the Tigers the title. Lewis and Clark was favored to capture the championship, but at the start of the season they were found to be weak in pitching and in having a young and inexperienced club. Coach Max Schoening surprised everyone and came up with an effective, balanced team.

B-SQUADERS CAPTURE SECOND PLACE

Under the leadership of Coach Jack Peterson, the Tiger seconds, loaded with plenty of true talent, made a strong bid for the City B-Squad title in the spring of '54. The boys had seven wins and three losses, bowing to Rogers who took the city title. Noteworthy was Frank Barnes' no hitter against West Valley and Larry Sampson's home run against Rogers.

TRACK GREENIES TAKE FOURTH PLACE

Coach "Skip" Leaderback's freshman track team finished the season with two wins, two losses, and a second in the sectional meet and a fourth in the all city. Promising for the frosh this season were Bill Co—man in the shot put and sprints, Ernan Connors in the sprints and Dave Morgan in the sprints and hurdles. First row, Jim Arlby, Charles Langer, Don Daniels, Jim Oki, Dick Bostedo, Bob Finch, Jack Bowman, Hugh Felling, Ed Holmes. Second row, Ernan Connors, Stuart Boyd, Henry Anderson, Max Elter, Glen Hagen, Doug Strand, Nelson Christensen, Dave Morgan.

1954 TRACK TEAM VICTORIOUS

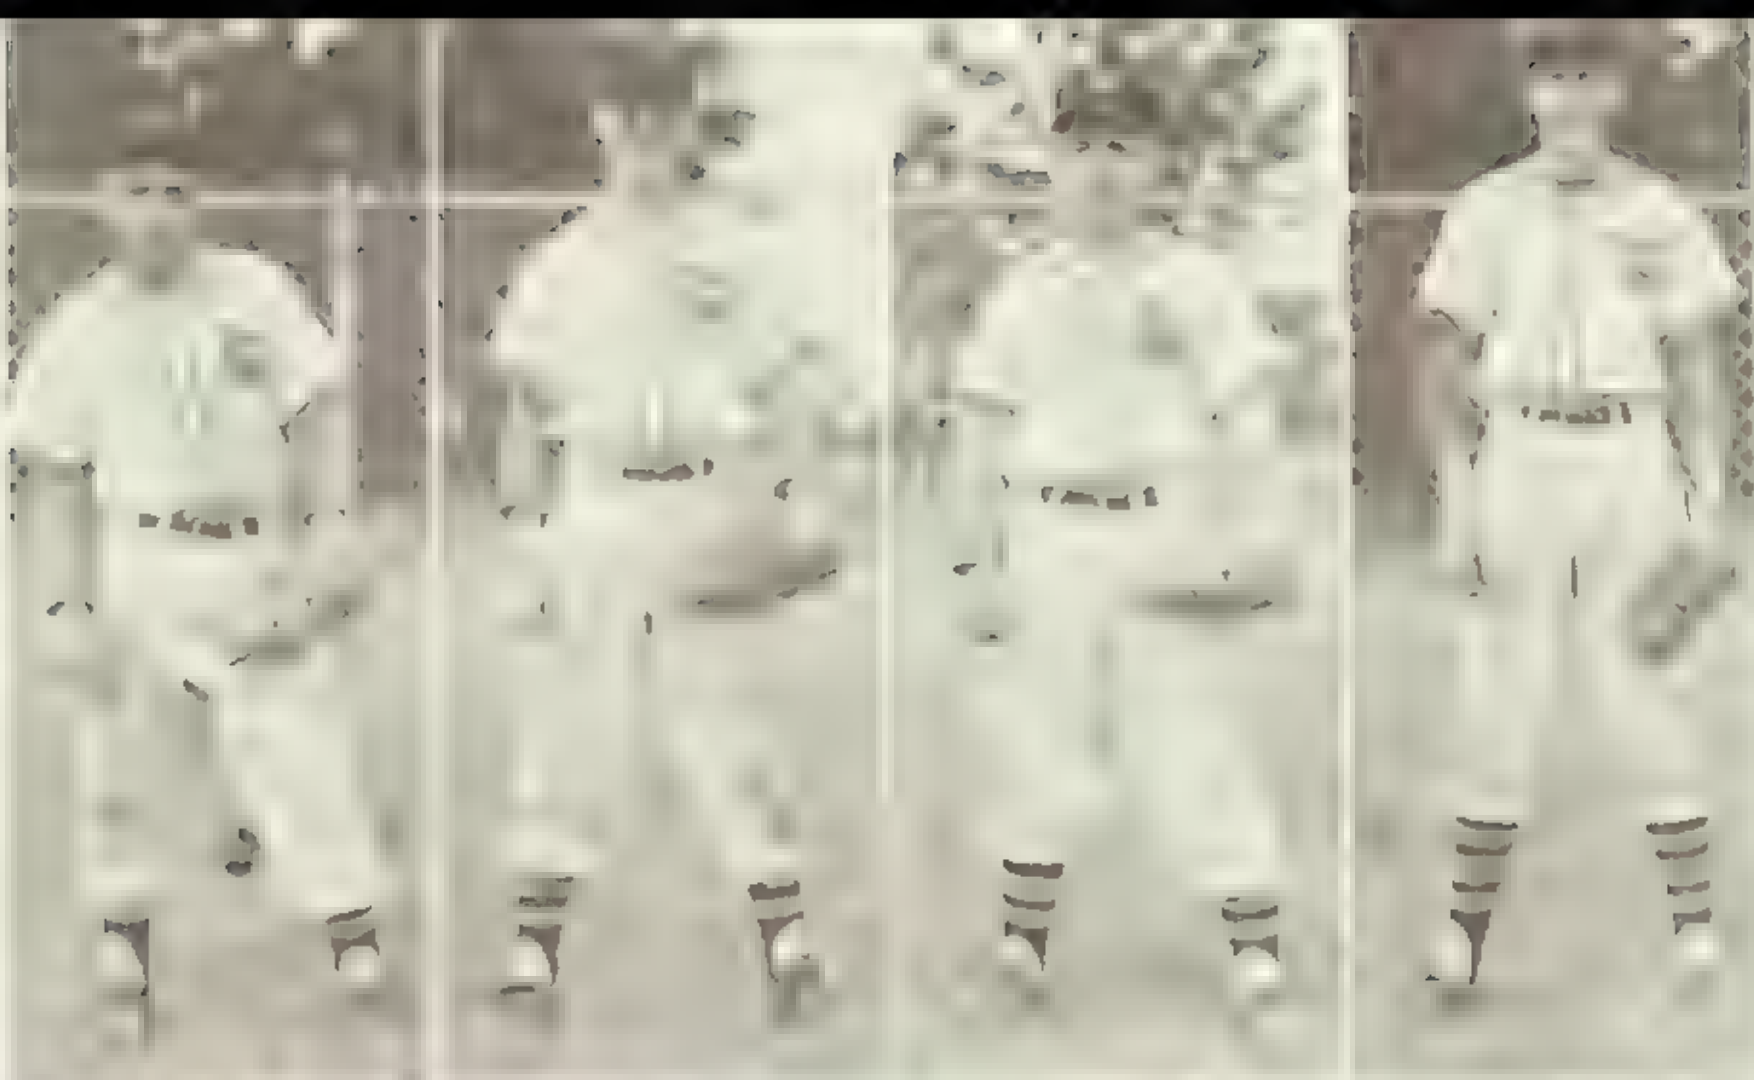

The Albert-Leland-C tracksters put on a terrific showing again in the spring of '54 by taking the city title for the second straight year. Beginning with the North Central meets, the power-packed Tigers met and conquered all opposition on the track and field, capturing first place in the 1st District meet. At the 1st and biggest meet of the year, the state meet at Pullman, they collected a worthy share of events by coming in fourth in the state. Jim Canton, Art Jones and Hal Cowell proved to be valuable sparks in the tracksters' triumphant season. First row, Curtis Minor, George Voths, Gordon Pogue, Jim Canton, Joe Manto, Eddie Pool, John Gray. L. C.'S BEST GOLFERS

It is seldom that on a golf team of high school level one can find so many individuals capable of shooting consistently in the seventies as are present on our golf squad here at L.C. Although our golfers claimed the city championship in '52 and tied with Gonzaga for first place in '53 and '54, this year should be exceptionally outstanding. Pictured above are the leading senior golfers who will graduate this June. At upper left is Dave Street, who came to L.C. from Boise. In Boise he won the Junior Kiwanis Golf Tourney and the Junior Chamber of Commerce championship along with other golfing honors. Upper right is Jim Johnson, who has been improving year by year and is now a member of the Idaho Summer Pacific Northwest Golf Association. He represented Spokane in National Junior Golf get-together, held in California because of his golfing ability. Lower left is Ray Schnudt, who was medalist in the Inland Empire High School Tourney in both '52 and '53. At lower right is Jerry Camp, who was medalist in the Inland Empire High School Tourney with a brilliant round of 71 in '54.

Dycus received credit as the radio spotter.

The B-squad completely overwhelmed all opposition and finished the season in a first place tie with North Central. HUGE CROWDS VIEW BASKETBALL AT COLISEUM

JAYVEES TIE FOR FIRST

A strong defense and a group of boys that played good ball proved to be the winning combination as the B Squad gained a three-way tie for first. Although losing Jack Schlang, Gary Coghill, Dennis Rieley and Larry Shopbell to the varsity, the Jayvees had enough strength to carry them through the season with a 7-3 record. To choose the outstanding player would be too difficult as the B Squad had ten outstanding ones, according to Jack Peterson, coach. First row: Jim Stewart, Willie Jones, Larry Simpson, Larry Shopbell, Pat Nichols. Second row: Tim Anderson, Mike Peterson, Terry Schmidt, Tom True, Doug Taylor.

KITTENS WIN CROWN

The reward for playing heads-up ball was the winning of the city crown for the LC frosh. The powerful Kittens came through the season with an excellent 13-2 record. Oliver Fuller, it staged a successful fall concert in conjunction with the rest of the Music department only six weeks after the opening of the fall semester. This hard working group of teen-age musicians, of whom we are all proud, have participated in three parades and have played for six football games including the W.S.C.-College of Pacific game during the year.
